Clients' Call Account

Terms & Conditions for a Clients Call and Designated Clients Account.

1. Your Account

- 1.1 Unless otherwise stated, these Terms and Conditions apply to your Clients Call Account(s) and Designated Client Call Account(s) ("Account"). This document together with your application forms your agreement with us in relation to the Account ("Agreement").
- 1.2 This Agreement replaces any terms and conditions or other agreements or authorities that may have applied to your Account. In the event of any overlap and/or inconsistencies between these terms and conditions and any other terms and conditions relating to any of our other products and services, the terms and conditions relating to such other products and services will take precedence in respect of those products and services.
- 1.3 Your account will be with TSB Bank plc. Registered Office: Henry Duncan House, 120 George Street, Edinburgh EH2 4LH. Registered in Scotland number SC095237.
- 1.4 Subject to any legal or regulatory requirements which may apply we are authorised to act upon any instruction, agreement or arrangement that is in accordance with your Authority without enquiring about the purpose, or the circumstances in which it is given, or about the disposition of any proceeds. If any one authorised signatory is authorised to operate any of your accounts, that person will be able, for example, to withdraw any money in any of your accounts, which may be without the knowledge of the (other) authorised signatories.
- 1.5 You acknowledge that any individual (whether or not listed in your application or Authority) can access your Account if they pass our standard customer verification procedure on any of your accounts or if they already have an established relationship with you which is recorded on our records. Our standard customer verification procedure can be passed by anyone who has access to your bank statements and banking information. It is therefore important that you keep your bank statements and banking information in a secure place and do not disclose them to anyone whom you do not want to have access to your Account.
- 1.6 You may cancel or amend your Authority by writing to us at TSB Bank plc, Business Banking, PO Box 1000, BX4 7SB or by completing and signing the form that we provide for that purpose and sending it to us at TSB Bank plc, Business Banking, PO Box 1000, BX4 7SB.
- 1.7 If we agree to fix any condition for a certain time, we will not change it during that time.
- 1.8 We reserve the right to decline to open an account.
- 1.9 The normal maximum balance on the Account is £5 million.
- 1.10 The Account is available to commercial customers for the purpose of holding client funds only.
- 1.11 The money paid into your Designated Client Account belongs to the client of yours that you name in the Designated Client Account title that you provide to us when you open your Account.
- 1.12 All transfers into and out of your Account must be to another account of yours with us.

2. Liability

- 2.1 General
 - 2.1.1 You must notify us by telephone or in writing as soon as possible after you become aware of any incorrectly executed transaction or any unauthorised transaction on your Account. You can do so by contacting us on the telephone number or at the address given in the Need to Know brochure as updated from time to time.
 - 2.1.2 You will be liable for all unauthorised transactions on your Account if you have acted fraudulently.
 - 2.1.3 When giving us a payment instruction (other than by cheque), you must provide us with the payee bank's Faster Payments Service enabled sort code and account number and, if required, full name and address, or where applicable, their BIC and IBAN and, if required, full name and address, and the payee bank's SWIFT address or National Clearing Code for your payment instructions to be properly executed. If you fail to provide the correct details we will not be liable should a transaction not be capable of being properly executed although we will, where relevant use all reasonable efforts to recover your payment. We reserve the right to charge you a fee to cover our reasonable costs for so doing.
 - 2.1.4 We will not be liable for:
 - any losses not directly associated with the incident that may cause you to claim against us whether or not such losses were reasonably foreseeable; nor
 - any loss of profits, loss of business, loss of goodwill or any form of special damages; nor
 - any losses associated directly or indirectly with our failing to make a payment because you have not provided us with the required or correct details.
 - 2.1.5 You are responsible for ensuring that cheques issued by you are correctly and legibly completed and signed.
- 2.2 Micro-enterprises

The provisions of this clause 2 shall apply if you are a Micro-enterprise.

 - 2.2.1 If we fail to execute (other than in situations where you have not provided us with all of the required information), or incorrectly execute a payment transaction or cheque payment on your Account, we will refund the amount of the transaction or payment to your Account unless the payment was received by the payee's bank. We will also refund to you any interest and charges directly incurred by you on your Account that would not have been incurred had we executed the transaction or payment correctly.

- 2.2.2 Where you have told us that there has been an unauthorised transaction or an unauthorised cheque payment on your Account, we will refund to your Account the amount of the transaction or payment and any interest and charges directly incurred on the Account as a result of the transaction or payment if the payment was in fact unauthorised. Beyond this we will have no further liability for an unauthorised transaction.
- 2.2.3 Where a payment instruction is initiated by a payee (e.g. a direct debit),
 - (a) and you are the payee, our responsibility is limited to correctly transmitting the payment order to the payer's bank. If we have incorrectly transmitted the payment instruction to the payer's bank, you may request that we make immediate efforts to trace the payment transaction and notify you of the outcome;
 - (b) and you are the payer, we are only responsible to you for a failure to execute the payment transaction or for incorrectly executing the payment transaction if the payment order has been correctly transmitted to us.

2.3 Non-Micro-enterprises

Clause 2.2 shall not apply if you are not a Micro-enterprise. Instead this clause 2.3 shall apply, and the Payment Services Regulations 2009 shall apply only insofar as they are provided for herein.

- 2.3.1 If we fail to execute (other than in situations where you have not provided us with all of the required information), or incorrectly execute a payment transaction on your Account, we shall be liable to you for any reasonable losses incurred by you but only if they arise directly from our breach of this Agreement or our negligence, and if in the ordinary course of events and with the knowledge we had, we might reasonably have expected such loss to result directly from such breach or negligence. Our liability pursuant to this clause 2.3.1 shall be limited:
 - (i) to the amount (if any) necessary to reimburse you as required by law in respect of the transaction pursuant to which our breach or negligence occurred; and
 - (ii) to the amount of any interest and charges directly incurred by you on the Account that would not have been incurred otherwise.

Beyond this we shall have no further liability to you for a failure to execute properly or a failure to execute at all for any reason.

- 2.3.2 Where you have told us that there has been an unauthorised transaction on your Account you will be liable for such transactions unless we are reasonably satisfied that the transaction was unauthorised. Subject to clause 2.3.1, if the transaction was unauthorised we will refund to your Account the amount of the transaction and any interest and charges directly incurred on the Account as a result of the transaction. Beyond this we will have no further liability to you for an unauthorised transaction.
- 2.3.3 We shall not be liable for the defective execution or payment of cheques unless we are negligent or in breach of contract. If you tell us that there has been an unauthorised cheque payment on your Account we will only be liable to you if we are reasonably satisfied that the cheque payment was not authorised by you. If we are liable to you under this clause 2.3.3 we will refund to you the amount of the payment, to the extent that the payment has been wrongly paid away, and any charges or interest you paid as a result of it, and pay you any interest we would have paid you on that amount, but beyond this we will not have any further liability to you.

- 2.4 Nothing in this clause 2 excludes our liability for fraudulent misrepresentation by us, our employees or agents, our liability for death or personal injury caused by our negligence or the negligence of our employees or agents, or any other liability on our part which cannot be excluded by law.

3. Force Majeure and Sanctions

- 3.1 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, if we are prevented, hindered, or delayed from or in performing any of our obligations under this Agreement due to abnormal and unforeseeable circumstances beyond our control (including any strike, lock-out, labour dispute, act of God, war, riot, civil commotion, malicious damage, compliance with a law or governmental order, rule, regulation or direction, accident, breakdown or other failure of equipment, software or communications network, fire, flood, or other circumstances affecting the supply of goods or services), then we shall not be liable to you or be obliged to perform our obligations under this Agreement to the extent that we are prevented, hindered or delayed in our performance by the abnormal and unforeseeable circumstances beyond our control.
- 3.2 We may be subject to sanctions and/or embargoes imposed by the international community including the UK, EU, UN and the USA. We may not accept instructions and may refuse to make any payment or take any action pursuant to an instruction if it would result, or in our reasonable opinion is likely to result, in a breach by us or any of our employees of any sanction or embargo whether or not imposed in the UK and we will not be liable for any loss, damage, cost or expense by reason aforesaid. We shall be permitted to disclose to the relevant authorities such information in relation to any instruction and/or payment as may be required.

4. Running your Account

- 4.1 We will provide you with regular bank statements for your Account to help you manage your finances in accordance with the frequency that you have requested. Bank statements will also be available to you upon request at least once a month. You will examine bank statements, confirmations and communications sent to you within a reasonable time after receiving them and will promptly advise us of any apparent mistake or discrepancy. Delay in notification may make correcting any error difficult.

- 4.2 If we need to investigate a transaction on your Account we may require you to co-operate with us and the police, if we need to involve them. We may need you to give us confirmation or evidence that you have not authorised a transaction. In certain circumstances we may refuse to accept a payment into the Account.
- 4.3 The authorised signatories are not permitted to allow the Account to become overdrawn.
- 4.4 If the Account does become overdrawn unauthorised borrowing will be charged at the applicable rates and other charges may also be incurred. These rates and charges are in our Charges Brochure and are also available on our website at www.tsbbusiness.co.uk. Interest is calculated on the cleared daily balance of unauthorised borrowing and is payable for the duration of the unauthorised borrowing. Interest and charges may vary from time to time in accordance with clause 12.
- 4.5 You will inform us in writing if you wish to issue cheques signed with the facsimile or other printed signature of an authorised signatory (for example by pre-printing, rubber stamp, cheque signing machine or lasering) and will give us specimens of such signatures. You acknowledge that if you do not so inform us, we may reject such cheques. However we are authorised to pay such cheques if they reasonably appear to us to have been issued by you. We need not check that a facsimile or other printed signature (or an imitation of it) has been added with your authority or the authority of your authorised signatory(s). You must ensure that cheques with facsimile or other printed signatures are kept secure and not available to anyone not authorised by you to use them.
- 4.6 You acknowledge that if you choose to complete cheques (other than by signature) by typewriter, laser printing or other mechanical means, such cheques may be easier to alter than hand-written cheques. You must ensure that all pre-printed or facsimile cheques are kept secure and not made available to anyone other than your authorised signatories. We are authorised to pay cheques completed by typewriter, laser printing or other mechanical means.
- 4.7 If we discover that a payment that has been credited to your account has been made by mistake, or if a payment has been recalled by a bank that has made it, we will immediately debit your account with the amount of that payment, even if this results in your account going into an unauthorised overdraft. You may have to pay any charges and interest that may result from use of an unauthorised overdraft in these circumstances.
- 5. Fees/Charges
- 5.1 We reserve the right to impose charges in accordance with the scale of charges provided in our Charges Brochure and also available on our website at www.tsbbusiness.co.uk as varied from time to time in accordance with clause 12. You can contact your relationship team at any time to get full information on our charges.
- 5.2 We reserve the right to take account of transactions on your Account in assessing charges payable in respect of your current account.
- 6. Interest
- 6.1 Until further notice, interest is calculated on a daily basis on cleared credit balances.
- 6.2 The gross rate is the annual interest rate, before deduction of income tax (where applicable) at the rate specified by law. Interest is normally paid after the deduction of income tax at the rate specified by law, unless the Account falls within an exempt category, or you qualify to receive gross interest.
- 6.3 Interest is normally paid at the net rate, but it may be paid at the gross rate if, for tax purposes, your Account falls within an exempt category or you qualify to receive gross interest. We reserve the right, at our discretion, to pay interest at the net rate.
- 6.4 In relation to your Designated Client Account unless you instruct us that interest is to be paid annually, interest is payable monthly and will be paid on the 10th day of each calendar month or when that day is not a Business Day, on the next Business Day. If you instruct us that interest shall be paid annually, it shall be paid on 31 March each year or, when that day is not a Business Day, then on the next Business day. Interest will also become payable when you close the Account.
- 6.5 In relation to your Clients Call Account interest is payable monthly and will be paid on the 10th day of each calendar month or when that day is not a Business Day, on the next Business Day. Interest will also become payable when you close the Account.
- 6.6 The rates of interest paid on your Account and the balances in relation to which such rates are payable are available in our UK branches and on www.tsbbusiness.co.uk
- 6.7 We will not change a fixed rate or a bonus rate on your Account for the time we have agreed to keep it fixed.
- 6.8 You can contact your relationship team to check your interest rates and to get details of interest rate changes at any time.
- 7. Payment instructions
- 7.1 In order for your payment instructions to be properly executed by us, when giving us payment instructions (other than cheques) you must provide us, as applicable, with:
- For sterling payments to a sterling account in the UK: the beneficiary bank's Faster Payments Service enabled sort code and account number and, if required, full name and address; or
 - For payments to an international account: the beneficiary bank's BIC number and IBAN number and, if required, full name and address, or the beneficiary bank's SWIFT address or National Clearing Code.
- We will rely on the sort code and account number for the payee that you provide to us. You are responsible for giving us the correct details and for checking that you have done so. We will also rely for payment instructions upon the signature provided under the Authority or, in the case of telephone and on-line banking, the specific requirements that apply in the terms and conditions for those banking channels. We shall not be liable if you provide incorrect identifiers in respect of debit transactions.
- 7.2 We may not be able to carry out a payment instruction if the bank or building society you are sending the payment to is not a member of the Faster Payments Service or a participant in the Faster Payments Service. If we cannot make a payment using the Faster Payments Service we will notify you or make this information available to you as described in clause 9 and you can contact us to ask if there is any other method available to make the payment. Until we have received an instruction from you that we can properly execute by an alternative method we will not make the payment.
- 7.3 Payment transactions will be shown on your Account in sterling (GBP) and will be executed in sterling (GBP) unless otherwise agreed.
- 7.4 Unless agreed otherwise, we use a Reference Exchange Rate for foreign exchange transactions. We may change our Reference Exchange Rate at any time and without notice to you. Such changes to a Reference Exchange Rate will be applied immediately. You can obtain details of the Reference Exchange Rate by telephoning the number given in the Payment Transaction brochure or such other number as we advise from time to time.
- 7.5 You can consent to our making a payment or a series of payments from your Account before we make the payment and if we agree, after you make the payment. We will inform you of our requirements for consent, which you must follow.
- 7.6 You can withdraw your consent to payment at any time up until we receive your payment instruction. In the case of a series of payments, you may withdraw your consent to our making them up until the end of the Business Day before the day set for the first payment and we will operate your Account on the basis that you do not consent to making the other payments.
- 7.7 Once we receive your payment instruction, you cannot withdraw your consent to the payment unless:
- in the case of a direct debit payment you inform us that you withdraw your consent by informing us at any time before the end of the Business Day preceding the day agreed for debiting the funds; or
 - in the case of a payment other than a direct debit, you inform us that you withdraw your consent at any time up to the cut-off time on the Business Day immediately before that set for the payment.
- 7.8 If you withdraw your consent to our making a payment, we will be entitled to charge you a fee to compensate us for the reasonable costs and expenses we incur in relation to this.
- 8. Payments to and from your Account, other than by cheque
- 8.1 Unless your payment is initiated by way of a Paper Payment Order, we will execute payment instructions for payments out of your Account in sterling, euro or other EEA currencies in accordance with our processing cycles so that the amount to be transferred reaches the payee's bank in all events no later:
- 8.1.1 for payments in sterling: where the payee's bank is within the UK, the next Business Day after the Business Day on which we received your instruction; or, where the payee's bank is elsewhere in the EEA, the fourth Business Day after the Business Day on which we received your instruction;
- 8.1.2 for payments in euro: where the payee's bank is within the EEA (including the UK), the next Business Day after the Business Day on which we received your instruction;
- 8.1.3 for payments in any other EEA currencies: where the payee's bank is within the EEA (including the UK), the fourth Business Day after the Business Day on which we received your instruction.
- For payments out of your account where the payment is initiated by way of a Paper Payment Order, we will execute payment instructions in accordance with our processing cycles so that the amount to be transferred reaches the payee's bank in all events no later than (in the case of payments in sterling in the UK and payments in euro anywhere within the EEA) the end of the second Business Day after the Business Day on which we received your instruction, or (in the case of such payments in sterling in the EEA, other than the UK, and payments in other EEA currencies anywhere within the EEA), the fourth Business Day after the Business Day on which we received your instruction.
- For payments outside the EEA and/or in non-EEA currencies different timescales will apply.
- Where we receive a payment instruction from you for execution on a specific day, you agree that the time of receipt is deemed to be the specific day on which we are to execute the payment instruction. We must receive payment instructions before the cut-off time specified or referred to in the Need to Know brochure or we will deem the instruction to have been received on the next Business Day. Instructions received on days which are not Business Days will also be deemed to have been received on the next Business Day.
- 8.2 Once we receive your payment instruction, you cannot revoke it except in the following circumstances:
- in the case of a direct debit payment you inform us in writing that you withdraw your consent no later than the Business Day before the account is due to be debited; or
 - where a specific day has been agreed for execution, you inform us in writing that you withdraw your consent no later than the Business Day before execution.
- 8.3 We will send the full amount of the payment to the person named in your payment instruction. We will send the money without deducting any of the charges we incur for making the payment but will deduct our charges from your Account which shall be set out in our invoices.
- 8.4 If we receive money payable to your Account, you agree to our deducting our reasonable charges from the money payable before applying them to your Account. We will not deduct any other charges from that money before paying it into your Account. If we deduct any charges under this clause, we will give you details of the amount of the money we receive and of our charges for receiving the money in our invoices.

- 8.5 Payments will reach the bank of the person to whom any payment is made in accordance with the information provided and as varied from time to time in accordance with clause 12. Times may differ according to currency and location, especially if payments are being made outside the EEA.
- 8.6 If we receive an electronic payment for you in sterling or euro on a Business Day, we apply the monies to your Account and make them available for you immediately we receive them. If we receive a payment for you on a non-Business Day, we apply the monies to your Account and make them available for you on the next Business Day. For payments received in other currencies, the monies are made available to you after the payment has been converted into sterling. How long this takes depends on when we receive the payment and the foreign exchange market for that currency. Please refer to our Payment Transaction brochure for further information.
- If sterling cash is paid into your Account through deposit points or by way of some other deferred checking service the cash will not be received by us until we have taken the money from the machine and/or envelope. In some cases this might not be until the next Business Day but if you use these types of services we will tell you when we are deemed to have received the money.
- 9. Stopping a payment instruction
- 9.1 If we refuse to act on your payment instruction or we are unable to act upon your payment instruction we will, where it is reasonable or we are required to do so, notify you or make available to you, the reason why the payment instruction was not executed as soon as possible and in any event within the designated maximum execution times for payment transactions of that type as set out in our Payment Transaction brochure.
- 9.2 Subject to any legal or regulatory requirements which may apply, we will notify you, or make the information available to you, that we have refused to act on your instructions and stopped the payment or were not able to act on your instructions. If this has been due to your giving incorrect information you can contact us and we will tell you how to put this right. We will notify you or make this information available to you in the manner that we reasonably believe is most appropriate having regard to the way in which you have sought to instruct us and the terms of our relationship with you. We will be entitled to charge for any costs we reasonably incur.
- 10. Refunds
- 10.1 Where you give us a payment instruction but your consent to the payment:
- does not specify the exact amount of the payment; and
 - the amount is more than you can reasonably expect to pay having regard to the previous history on your Account, any other circumstances relevant to you, the Account or the person to whom the payment is made,
- we will refund the full amount of the payment provided you request the refund within 8 weeks from the date on which the funds were debited.
- 10.2 If you request a refund we may ask you to provide such information or further information as we consider reasonably necessary to show that the payment satisfied the requirements for refund.
- 10.3 We shall inform you of our decision regarding your request for a refund within 10 Business Days of our receipt of the information you provide under clause 10.2.
- 10.4 The foregoing provisions of this clause 10 do not apply to direct debits which have been incorrectly debited to your Account and your refund rights under the Direct Debit scheme will continue to apply. You should tell us immediately if you think that there has been an incorrect direct debit payment so that we can arrange a refund.
- 11. Termination/Closing of Accounts
- 11.1 This Agreement shall continue until terminated in accordance with this clause.
- 11.2 We may terminate this Agreement immediately if any of the following occur:
- (a) any information you have given us or give us in the future (whether in connection with this Agreement or not) is inaccurate;
 - (b) if any material litigation is, or material administrative, criminal or judicial proceedings are, being taken against you at the time this Agreement is signed and you have not informed us in writing before entering into this Agreement ("material" means likely, if successful, to have any damaging effect on your business);
 - (c) if you are a sole trader you die, become of unsound mind, become insolvent (or in Scotland, apparently insolvent) a bankruptcy petition (or in Scotland, a petition for sequestration) is presented against you, or steps are taken to appoint an administrator, judicial factor or similar officer to you or you apply to the court for a moratorium or make a proposal to creditors for a voluntary arrangement or you grant a trust deed for creditors or take any action (including entering negotiations) with a view to readjustment, rescheduling, forgiveness or deferral of any part of your indebtedness;
 - (d) if you are a limited company or limited liability partnership, you have a petition presented or resolution passed for winding up or an administration order or a notice of intention to appoint an administrator is issued or notice of appointment of an administrator is filed with the court or you have a receiver appointed over all or part of your assets or you cease to trade, or you are deemed by law unable to pay your debts, or you make an application in connection with a moratorium or a proposal to creditors for a voluntary arrangement or take any action (including entering into negotiations) with a view to readjustment, rescheduling, forgiveness or deferral of any part of your indebtedness, including in Scotland granting a trust deed for creditors;
 - (e) if you are a partnership (including a limited liability partnership) or unincorporated association, you dissolve or a petition is presented for an order to be made for the winding-up of the partnership or an application or a petition is presented or made for an administration order against the partnership;
 - (f) if you are a limited liability partnership, any member ceases without our written consent to be a member or you cease for any reason to be a limited liability partnership; or
 - (g) you breach in a material way this Agreement or any other agreement with us.
- 11.3 We reserve the right to require an Account(s) to be closed without giving a reason. This applies even if closure of the Account(s) results in a loss of tax benefits, and we will not be liable to compensate you for any loss of tax benefits or any other consequential or indirect losses whatsoever and howsoever arising. We will not close an Account without giving you at least two months' notice in writing.
- 11.4 Subject to clause 11.2 we may terminate this Agreement by giving you not less than 2 months' notice.
- 11.5 You may terminate this Agreement at any time by informing us in writing.
- 11.6 Closure of your Account by you or us will not release you from any liability in respect of any sums owing to us or from any previous liability or indemnity for any act performed by us in accordance with instructions previously received from you or an authorised signatory.
- 12. Variation
- 12.1 We may change or introduce (where appropriate):
- interest rates, including their type or the way they are calculated or charged. The new rates apply to your Account from the date the rate changes;
 - charges and annual fees;
 - statement dates; and/or
 - these terms and conditions.
- 12.2 Subject to clauses 12.3 and 12.4, we will notify you by notice in writing at least 2 months before we make any change to these terms and conditions. You will be deemed to have accepted any such change if you do not notify us to the contrary before the date any such change comes into effect. However, if you choose not to accept any change:
- you can close the Account at any time before the change comes into effect provided that any outstanding amounts on the Account are paid; or
 - our notice of the change shall be deemed to be notice of termination given under clause 11.4 and this Agreement will terminate the day before any change comes into effect. Should there be any outstanding balance on the Account it will become immediately due and payable on termination.
- 12.3 We may change this Agreement at any time to reflect changes in law, regulation or codes of practice which apply to us or the way we are regulated. We will always endeavour to give you at least two months' notice of such changes in accordance with clause 12.2 wherever possible. Where this is not possible we will give you as much prior notice as reasonably practicable.
- 12.4 Notwithstanding clause 12.2 we may change our interest rates at any time if the change is either:
- 12.4.1 to your advantage; or
 - 12.4.2 a change to a Reference Interest Rate,
- in either case we will tell you about the change by making details available in our branches within three Business Days of making the change or by telling you personally within 30 days of making the change.
- 12.5 When we tell you personally about a change we can do this by letter, email, text, statement, statement inserts or messages or in any other way which is sent to you individually.
- 12.6 We will update our website within three Business Days of a rate change taking effect.
- 12.7 We will not change a fixed rate or a bonus rate on your account for the time we have agreed to keep it fixed.
- 13. Cheques and Cheque clearing
- 13.1 Banking of cheques for payment will at all times be subject to the rules, and clearing processes, of any cheque clearing systems used by the Bank.
- 13.2 We reserve the right to refuse payment on any cheque that is presented more than six months after the date of the cheque.
- 13.3 If you require information in relation to cheques (for example, in relation to charges or clearing processes), please refer in the first instance to the latest Need to Know Brochure or consult our website at www.tsbbusiness.co.uk. If you have any queries or need further information please contact your relationship team.
- 13.4 The processing times for dealing with UK cheques do not apply to foreign cheques paid into your Account. We may at our sole discretion either negotiate a foreign cheque or collect it. If we negotiate the cheque we will buy it from you by paying into your Account the sterling equivalent of the cheque on the Business Day after the day that we receive it, using the relevant Reference Exchange Rate prevailing on that day. If we collect the cheque we will pay into your Account the sterling equivalent of the cheque on the day we receive payment from the paying bank using the relevant Reference Exchange Rate prevailing on that day. You can obtain details of our Reference Exchange Rate by telephoning the number given in the Payment Transaction brochure or such other number as we advise from time to time.
- If the foreign bank returns the cheque or asks for money to be returned, we will take the currency or sterling equivalent from your Account. If we converted the cheque into sterling we will recalculate the amount based on the Reference Exchange Rate prevailing on the day we debit your Account.
- Occasionally it is not possible to obtain payment of foreign cheques because of local foreign exchange or other restrictions.
- Further information on foreign cheques and details of charges for negotiated or collected cheques are set out in our International Services tariff. A copy of this brochure is on our website at www.tsbbusiness.co.uk or alternatively contact your relationship manager.

14. Notice

- 14.1 Any notice (other than notification on changes to interest rates referred to in clause 12 above) to be given by either party in relation to your Account shall be written, and either sent by facsimile (in which case deemed to be received the next Business Day after sending), post or otherwise delivered to the other party (and deemed received upon receipt). The address for any such notice for us will be TSB Bank plc, Business Banking, PO Box 1000, BX4 7SB, until further notice. The address for any such notice for you will be the address given on the application form for the opening of this Account. Either party may change address for communication by giving seven days' notice in writing to the other party.

15. Third Party Rights

- 15.1 Nothing in this Agreement confers or is intended to confer a benefit enforceable by a person who is not a party to it and such a person shall have no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any of its terms.

16. Governing law and language

- 16.1 This Agreement and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with it shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales if your Account is held in England and Wales or the laws of Scotland if your Account is held in Scotland. The courts of either England and Wales or of Scotland (depending on where your Account is based) shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Agreement (including any dispute relating to any non-contractual obligation arising out of or in connection with this Agreement).
- 16.2 The language of this Agreement is English and all communications and notices between us shall be in English.

17. Defined Terms

"Business" means any body corporate or unincorporated, sole trader or partnership named in this Agreement and where the Business (not being a body corporate) consists of two or more persons, then this definition means all or any of them and the liability of such persons will be joint and several;

"Business Day" means 9 am to 5 pm Mondays to Fridays other than public and bank holidays in England and Wales, or Scotland (if in Scotland) or we notify you of different times for the processing of payments to and from your Account;
