What we've done

- We've written to our customers to let them know about the change in opening hours, why we have come to this decision and the different ways they can bank with us. This information is available in branch as well as online
- Partners have been speaking with customers, particularly personal and small business customers who use the branch regularly and those customers who require additional support with the changes to branch opening hours – answering questions, discussing concerns, giving advice on alternative travel arrangements and how they can get to other branches and alternative ATMs. TSB is also offering customers 'Get Me Started' appointments, which help customers register for and use online, mobile and telephone banking
- We have confirmed that there will be no job losses as a result of this change
- We have explained that the changes in opening hours have been tailored to when branches are busiest and to ensure that customers have consistent access to a branch in the local area
- We explained that the bank sees maintaining a physical presence in local communities as important and that this is preferable to mobile banking
- We have confirmed that the bank would be eager to discuss the feasibility of banking hubs being established in the future, noting that these are not without challenges
