We have talked with the local community about the reduced opening hours in our Rothesay branch on 29 July 2019.

- The constituency Member of the Scottish Parliament, Michael Russell MSP
- The offices of the regional Members of the Scottish Parliament
- Local ward Councillors
- Local Chamber of Commerce
- Local Federation of Small Businesses
- Local Citizens Advice Bureau
- Lending Standards Board - the governing body responsible for overseeing the Access to Banking Standards

What was said

- TSB was asked about the impact of these changes on those customers who require additional support and assistance
- TSB was asked about the long term future of the branch and the rationale behind the change in opening hours
- TSB was asked about the level of consultation undertaken around the decision to reduce opening hours at the branch

What we've done

- We've written to our customers to let them know about the change in opening hours, why we have come to this decision and the different ways they can bank with us. This information is available in branch as well as online
- Partners in branch have been speaking with customers, particularly personal and small business customers who use the branch regularly and those customers who require additional support with the changes to branch opening hours – answering questions, discussing concerns, giving advice on alternative travel arrangements and how they can get to other branches and alternative ATMs. TSB is also offering customers 'Get Me Started' appointments, which help customers register for and use online, mobile and telephone banking
- We have confirmed that there are no current plans for further changes to our branch network, but that for the branch to be viable in the long-term, we will need to see customers choosing to bank there
- We have outlined how TSB is determined to make significant efforts to keep branches with low footfall open by reducing opening hours as part of a concerted effort to reduce costs so that we can protect our physical presence
