

Thornliebank Branch Community Engagement

We're closing our Thornliebank branch on 25 May 2021.

In our Branch Review we've published details of this closure and how we can support you through the changes and the alternative services you can use. You can view this at tsb.co.uk/our-branches

We've also written to customers who use this branch, to let them know about the changes. We always let customers know about these changes at least 12 weeks before the branch closure takes place. This makes sure we have time to talk with them about banking options, especially for customers who require additional support with the closure.

As part of our Branch Review we've also talked with the local community about the impact of the closure and how we can help customers with this change. This Community Engagement summary explains who we contacted in the local community and any feedback we received about the closure.

Who we contacted

We shared information with key members of the local community shown below about how customers' use of the branch has changed, what other TSB branches are nearby and how we are working with the Post Office® to provide banking alternatives. Visit postoffice.co.uk/branch-finder for more information.

- The office of the local MP, Kirsten Oswald
- The office of the local MSP, Jackson Carlaw
- The councillors for the Giffnock and Thornliebank Ward
- Local Chamber of Commerce
- Local Federation of Small Businesses
- Local Citizens Advice Bureau
- Post Office®
- Lending Standards Board

What feedback we received

The local MP wrote to TSB to stress the need for face to face banking within communities. She felt TSB had moved away from its roots as a community-based bank. She also highlighted the need to support high streets.

What we've done

We wrote to the MP and explained the reasons why TSB had decided to close branches. We stressed the need to strike the right balance between branches on the high street and our digital platforms. We also outlined the support we would offer customers, and vulnerable customers in particular.

We're here to help

We're here to support customers through the changes, especially those who would benefit from extra help with their banking. We'd encourage you to make sure you're set up to bank with us using one of the options below, so you can access your banking from home or elsewhere 24/7:
