If a scheduled transport service on which you are booked to travel whilst outside the UK is delayed or cancelled, we will pay you a benefit for each 12 hour period you are delayed.

Special condition

We will work out the length of the delay from the date and time of your scheduled departure. You must have checked in at the specified time and provide written confirmation from the carrier or their handling agents of the actual date and time of the departure and the reason for the delay.

What is not covered

1.	Anything mentioned in the General exclusions section.
2.	Any claim resulting from a delayed departure occurring at your point of international departure .
3.	Any claim for delayed departure in relation to a journey that was not pre-booked before you left the UK .
4.	Any claim caused by strike or industrial action which was public knowledge at the time of buying your policy.
5.	Any claim where a possible reason for delay was public knowledge at the time of buying your policy.

General conditions

1.	You must take reasonable care to provide complete and accurate answers to the questions we ask when you take out or make changes to your policy. If the information provided by you is not complete and accurate, we may: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● revise the premium and/or amend the medical underwriting decision(s) for any declared pre-existing medical condition(s) which may result in an accepted condition being excluded; or ● not pay any claim in full; or ● cancel your policy and refuse to pay any claim.
2.	You must take reasonable precautions to protect yourself and your property against any accident, injury, theft, loss or damage.
3.	If we make a payment before cover is confirmed and our claims investigation reveals that no cover exists under the terms of the policy, you must pay us back any amount we have paid, which you are not covered for.
4.	You must tell us as soon as possible after any injury, illness, incident or redundancy, or if you discover any loss or damage which may lead to a claim under this policy. You must also tell us if you are aware of any writ, summons or prosecution. You must send us every communication relating to a claim immediately.
5.	You , or any person acting for you , must not negotiate, admit or reject any claim without our permission in writing.
6.	We may refuse to pay any expenses for which you cannot provide receipts or bills.
7.	You or your legal representative must pay for any relevant certificates, information and evidence, which we may need to deal with your claim; for example death or medical certificates, police reports or purchase receipts. When there is a claim for injury or illness, we may ask for, and will pay for, any insured person to be medically examined on our behalf. We may also ask for, and will pay for, a post-mortem examination if any insured person dies.
8.	If, at the time of an incident which results in a claim under this policy, there is any other insurance covering the same loss, damage, expense or liability, we are entitled to approach that insurer for a contribution towards the claim, and will only pay our share. This condition does not apply to the Personal accident or Holiday disruption benefit sections.
9.	We are entitled to take over and carry out in your name the defence or settlement of any legal action. We may also take proceedings at our own expense and for our own benefit, but in your name, to recover any payment we have made under this policy to anyone else.
10.	You cannot transfer your rights under this policy. A person, partnership (whether limited or not) or company who is not insured under the policy has no rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any of its terms.
11.	If you make a medical claim you will be asked to supply your doctor's name to enable us to access your medical records. This will help the treating doctors, and us , to provide you with the most appropriate treatment and assess whether cover applies. If you do not agree to provide this we may not deal with your claim.
12.	Following the expiry of your 14 day statutory cooling off period you continue to have the right to cancel your policy at any time by contacting us , but no refund of premium will be available.
13.	We (or any agent we appoint and who acts with our specific authority) may cancel this policy by sending at least 7 days' written notice to your last known postal and/or email address setting out the reason for cancellation. Valid reasons include but are not limited to the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Where we reasonably suspect fraud. ● Where you fail to co-operate with us or provide us with information or documentation we reasonably require and this affects our ability to process a claim or defend our interests. ● Where you have not taken reasonable care to provide complete and accurate answers to the questions we ask. See the 'Contract of insurance' and 'Information and changes we need to know about' wordings in the 'Information about your travel insurance policy' section in the policy document and the separate 'Important Information' notices supplied. If we cancel the policy, you will not be entitled to a refund of the premium paid in respect of the cancelled cover. Where our investigations provide evidence of fraud or a serious non-disclosure we may cancel the policy immediately, backdate the cancellation to the date of the fraud or cancel the policy from the date you took it out.
14.	The most we will pay for any claim is shown on your schedule; we will not pay more than the amount shown for any one incident.
15.	If your claim is in any way dishonest or exaggerated we will not pay any benefit under this policy or return any premium to you and we may cancel your policy immediately and backdate the cancellation to the date of the fraudulent claim. We may also take legal action against you .
